Billy Wolf & The Kids of Heavenly Hills Elementary is a story about a pleasant, fun school, which never suffered any issues or had any major problems until a bully by the name of Billy Wolf came along.

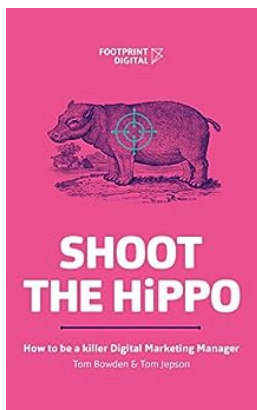

He's huge, mean, and scares everyone - he even has the teachers on edge. Billy has been suspended from every school he's attended due to his rude and brutish behavior. Thinking that he will do better at Heavenly Hills, his parents enroll him, but Billy's behavior immediately begins to not set so well with the students.

While other kids succumbed to his taunts and jeers; one kid, by the name of Matthew, won't be intimidated. If Billy can get Matthew to be afraid of him, that would complete his mission of becoming king of Heavenly Hills by having another school under his belt of torture.

But what Billy doesn't know is that Matthew has a little secret all his own; something that hopefully will put an end to Billy's mean and corruptible ways.

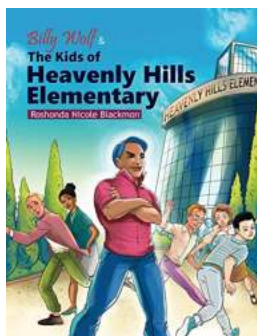

Book has scripture references and contains a prayer. Recommended for ages 8 &
