- A bottle of champagne or sparkling wine
- A handful of fresh oranges
- A specific amount of money
- A place to store the bottle

Follow these simple steps:

1. Select a champagne bottle that seals tightly and clean it thoroughly.
2. Peel the oranges and place them inside the bottle until it is about one-third full.
3. Add the desired amount of money into the bottle; this can be any denomination you choose.
4. Seal the bottle tightly to ensure no air can enter or escape.
5. Store the bottle in a cool, dark place for a specific period of time, usually several months to several years.

The longer you let the combination age, the more intense the infusion becomes, and the higher value the bottle can potentially fetch on the market.

The Rising Popularity of Combo Money In Champagne Bottle Orange

Combo Money In Champagne Bottle Orange has been gaining substantial popularity among collectors, investors, and financial enthusiasts. The demand for these unique money-infused champagne bottles has skyrocketed, making it a profitable investment opportunity. Many people are drawn to the idea of combining luxury and wealth, creating a truly captivating and valuable product.

FOR MAGICIAN'S ONLY!

The magician borrows 2 regular money bills from 2 random spectators. These are torn in half and each spectator receives one half of their bill. The remaining two halves are vanished by the magician. One half reappears in an orange and the serial number matches the one bill of the one spectator exactly!

The magician struggles to reappear the second half bill and offers the remaining spectator a bottle of champagne of similar value as a consolation prize. However, the magician requests the spectator to pop open the champagne and pour him/herself a drink. When the bottle is popped, a half note is seen in the champagne cork and the serial number matches exactly! Bear in mind that the spectator opens the champagne bottle him/herself and the magician never interferes, or touches the bottle at any time.

The routine is as CLEAN and DIRECT as described!2 Borrowed money notes are used!No gaffed bills and no serial number tampering!No stooges!You start and end CLEAN!The final spectator can keep the champagne bottle!Champagne & orange already on stage before the trick!Created for the professional who needs a solid trick that can work under any circumstances!
