Next, think about your family's values and the messages you'd like the stories to convey. Are you looking for a book that emphasizes the importance of giving or one that highlights the significance of family? Identifying these elements will help you find a storybook that aligns with your values.

Lastly, pay attention to the illustrations. Does the artwork complement the story? Do the illustrations resonate with your family's aesthetic preferences? Remember, these illustrations will become a visual memory associated with the story, so choosing ones that appeal to your family is essential.
