Ravlen has to grow up too soon, to save those who can't save themselves.

Twelve-year-old Ravlen doesn't know that the shimmer down her spine is a sign of the hero she was meant to become. Abandoned by her parents, she's told her nightmares of other worlds are nothing more than an overactive imagination.

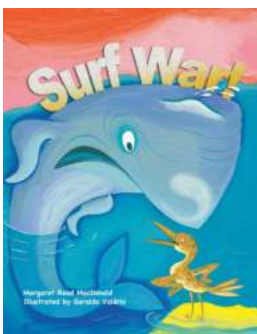

Until, a man from a different world appears. The echo world. A fantastic place that exists alongside reality. A place we can go. A place to get trapped.

Ravlen discovers that our desires have become our greatest enemy. An enemy that only a twelve-year-old can fight, with a teenage mentor by her side. An enemy that lurks in the world where all our dreams come true. The echo world.

Now, she must face her deepest fears and fight villains disguised as friends. She's not ready, but she goes anyway.

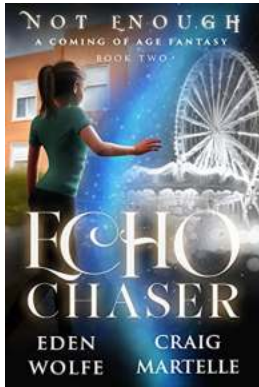

Into the echo, where she has to find herself as much as the lost souls within.

An action-packed adventure for readers both young and young-at-heart, Ravlen will wrap you up in the wishes of the echo worlds... Read it today!
