Meeting the Tooth Fairy

Franklin's friends had shared various stories about the Tooth Fairy, but he wanted to see for himself if she was real. He had heard that she would generously exchange lost teeth for a small gift or a coin while children sleep. With excitement in his heart, Franklin set out to wait by his bedroom window, determined to meet the magical Tooth Fairy.

As Franklin lay in bed, his eyelids getting heavier, he noticed a faint glow coming from the moonlit window. His heart raced as he saw a tiny figure with wings hovering before him. The Tooth Fairy gingerly collected Franklin's lost tooth and left him a small gift, along with a heartfelt note. Overwhelmed with joy, Franklin couldn't believe his eyes. The Tooth Fairy was real! And she even took the time to write a personal note just for him.

The Valuable Lesson Franklin Learns
