The first part of Dan Joyce's Have You Taken Your Meds introduces a large and vibrant cast of characters, and takes you on an intense, fascinating journey through one man's struggle to understand and heal his mental illness. The lively writing and provocative illustrations lead us through both a poignant family saga and the various perceptions and insights of a man trying valiantly to live and to thrive. In prose, poetry, song and artistic illustrations, Joyce explores the lure of addiction and the drama of recovery, and the challenges and joys of an artist's life.
