Wiggles is a small snake who has big dreams and even bigger adventures.

When he spies a red balloon in the sky, he follows it to a birthday party, even though he hasn't been invited ...

Wiggles slid up the side of the beautiful cake

Leaving a mess of icing in his wake

He gobbled a hole, to hide near the top

The cake tasted so yummy, he couldn't stop

And his hungry tummy wanted some food

For the very last thing Wiggles had chewed

Was one mealy little ol' breakfast fly

That had been old and stale and much to dry
