These meatballs are made from a mix of ground beef, pork, and veal, which gives them a perfect balance of flavors. The meat is combined with breadcrumbs, Parmesan cheese, eggs, and a variety of herbs and spices. The mixture is then formed into perfectly sized balls and cooked to perfection. The result is a melt-in-your-mouth meatball that is packed with flavor.

But what truly elevates these meatballs is the attention to detail put into the cooking process. They are slow-cooked in a homemade tomato sauce for hours, allowing the flavors to meld together and create a rich and hearty sauce. The meatballs absorb the flavors of the sauce, becoming incredibly tender and juicy.

Once the meatballs are cooked to perfection, they are lovingly placed on top of a bed of macaroni. The macaroni acts as a perfect canvas, soaking up the cheese sauce and adding another layer of comfort and indulgence to the dish. The combination of the meatballs, the cheese sauce, and the macaroni creates a symphony of flavors that will leave you craving for more.

But what truly makes Macaroni Homestyle Cheesesteaks special is the way it brings people together. Food has the uncanny ability to create connections and foster a sense of community. The act of sharing a delicious meal with loved ones can create memories that last a lifetime. It's about more than just the food; it's about the experience.

Imagine sitting around a table with your family, passing around plates of cheesy goodness and sharing stories and laughter. The aroma fills the air as everyone digs into the mouthwatering meatballs and macaroni. There's a sense of warmth and togetherness that can only be achieved through food.

Food brings people from different backgrounds and cultures together, transcending language and barriers. Macaroni Homestyle Cheesesteaks has become a melting pot of flavors and traditions, with people from all walks of life coming together to enjoy a shared love for good food.

So, what is it about Macaroni Homestyle Cheesesteaks that makes it the best meatballs in the world? It's the blend of flavors, the attention to detail, and the love and passion that goes into every dish. It's the sense of community and togetherness that food can create. Has cooking ever saved a life? It definitely rescued Steve Martorano from the streets of South Philadelphia, and an almost certain end in jail ... or worse. Raised on Gram's meatballs and Mom's macaroni, Martorano learned at an early age that full-flavored food made with loving hands was the only food worth eating. And, by the way, that's macaroni and gravy, not pasta and sauce, cuz. That's just the way it is in Martorano's world.

When it seemed like the only future for a kid from the neighborhood was to drive a truck or join the mob, it was this passion for food that inspired Martorano to reach for more and start his first "restaurant"—selling homemade sandwiches he prepared in his mother's basement. These sandwiches, served up with a side of Steve's personality, turned out to be the recipe for success and started Martorano in the restaurant business.

Eighteen years after opening the incredibly popular Cafe Martorano in Fort Lauderdale, Florida, Martorano now runs a total of four successful restaurants in Florida and Las Vegas, and has built a devoted and ever-growing clientele—including a bevy of celebrities—who are more than willing to wait hours for a table. In this personal, funny, delectable cookbook, the self-proclaimed "heavyweight champ of Italian-American cooking" offers us a wide range of the dishes that have made his restaurants so popular. Among the book's seventy-eight recipes, you'll find tried-and-true favorites like Martorano Meatballs, Fresh Mozzarella, Stuffed Hot Peppers, and Fried Galamad Red (known as calamari outside Philly), as well as newer fare like Grilled Octopus, Rice Balls, and Sunday Pork Gravy with Rigatoni (featuring braised pigs' feet). And don't worry—

Martorano doesn't skip the cocktails or dessert! Expect to indulge in Peanut Butter Cake with Peanut Butter Zabaglione, Cannoli Cream, Tuscan Lemonade, and Sicilian Mules. Steve Martorano's It Ain't Sauce, It's Gravy delivers all the staples of delicious neighborhood-style comfort food, served up in the author's one-of-a-kind, deliciously fun-loving style.
