

Maggie And Max The Puppy Place 10: A Heartwarming Tale of Unconditional Love

That meant that all six Cub Scouts in Charles's den came to the Petersons' house for their meeting every week, and it also meant that both Mom and Dad came along to the Scouts' monthly pack meeting.

After Charles's dad finished leading the pizza chant, his mom shooed the pack out to the backyard so they could practice for the "Feats of Skill" they would have to perform as part of their Wolf Badge requirements. Some of the den members had a hard time sitting still for very long. So there was always time for jumping and running during their meetings.

Charles and Sammy were practicing their forward and backward rolls when Charles looked up and saw a furry brown face watching from a window in the house. "Hi, Buddy!" he yelled, waving to his puppy.

Charles loved Buddy so much. More than ice cream, more than Cub Scouts, maybe even more
