Coyote Soul, Raven Heart, Reg Darling’s recently reworked collection of short prose pieces, defies ready classification. Yes, it includes a lot of hunting stories, but they are about hunting in the same way that Turgenev’s Hunting Sketches are about hunting—concise glimpses into the people and places that matter to the author. Darling’s smooth prose should be of interest to anyone who appreciates the complexity of nature and struggles to define our own place within it. — E.Donnall Thomas Jr, co-editor, Traditional Bowhunter Magazine, author of Language of Wings and Have Bow Will Travel
