Following God's plan Noah has built a great ship called an Ark. He has been chosen by God to gather two of every animal and take them onboard the ship with his family.

Among the animals are two doves. Celia and her mate Percy. They know a great storm is coming and that the earth will be destroyed because man has become so evil.

Looking around the Ark at the other birds, Celia feels very plain and believes she doesn't belong with the others. Some are very colorful. Some have great wings. Some are hunters. She is only a dove.

Celia has no idea the plan God has for her and the important role she will play in helping Noah find dry land on which they will start their new lives.
