EXCERPT:

Once, I laughed my socks off,
And they ran off down the street,
I caught them, but they wouldn't let me,
Put them on my feet,

They danced around behind me,
As I made my way back home,
They jumped and jived about the place,
They'd not leave me alone,

I went into the living room,
To sit and watch T.V.,
But they danced around in front of me;
I couldn't see the screen,

I tried to do the washing up,
But much to my surprise,
They jumped around inside the bowl,
And splashed me in the eyes,
