Exploring Traditional Lombard Cuisine

Lombardy's cuisine is deeply rooted in tradition and is known for its rich flavors and diverse ingredients. One cannot miss the famous risotto alla Milanese, a creamy dish with saffron that embodies the essence of the region. Another must-try delicacy is osso buco, a tender veal shank stew cooked with vegetables and white wine, which originates from the city of Milan. And let's not forget about the iconic panettone, a sweet bread filled with candied fruits and raisins, typically enjoyed during the Christmas season.

Indulging in Lombardy's Cheese and Wine

Lombardy is also renowned for its excellent cheeses and fine wines. Gorgonzola, a blue cheese with a creamy and tangy flavor, and Taleggio, a soft and pungent cheese, are just two examples of the region's cheese-making expertise. When it comes to wine, Lombardy boasts various vineyards producing exceptional wines like Franciacorta, a sparkling wine akin to Champagne, and Valtellina, a red wine produced in the picturesque Valtellina valley. These cheese and wine pairings create a sensory experience that will leave you craving for more.

Join Carole Bumpus and her husband in Book Three of the Savoring the Olde Ways series as they take you on their first culinary trek through Italy, including regions of Lombardy, Tuscany, Campania, Apulia, and Lazio. Embrace unforgettable characters such as lovely guides Lisa and Margarita, who introduce you to the “true Italian experience.” Sup on traditional foods (cucina povera) including local tortelli, pappardelle al cinghiale (wild boar), bistecca all Fiorentina, pasta alla vongole (clams), or saltimbocca alla Romana. Sip regional wines, along with memorable digestivos like limoncello and grappa. Find yourself dancing at harvest festivals, climbing through Etruscan tombs, traipsing among Roman ruins, or bathing in ancient Roman termés (hot springs). Climb to the heights in elegant Capri on the gorgeous Amalfi Coast, or to the top of the “holiest of holies” at St. Peter’s Basilica. Soak up ancient and cultural history in Milan, Firenze (Florence), Amalfi, Pompeii, Lecce, and Rome. Bask in the sun and opalescent waters along the rugged coasts of the Tyrrhenian and Adriatic Seas. And, best of all, capture a rare glimpse into the secrets of the Mediterranean psyche while sharing a good meal with new friends. It is truly the trip of a lifetime.
