

Snappy The Alligator Did Not Ask To Be In This Book

Snappy the alligator is an adorable and witty character that has captured the hearts of both children and adults alike. In the book "Snappy The Alligator Did Not Ask To Be In This Book," author Julie Falatko creates a whimsical and hilarious world where Snappy finds himself at the center of attention, despite his protests.

As the story unfolds, readers are introduced to Snappy, a lovable alligator who enjoys his peaceful and quiet life. However, one day, a narrator enters the scene and starts narrating his every move, much to Snappy's dismay. The narrator describes Snappy as a mean and hungry alligator, even though he is just going about his normal day.

Throughout the book, Snappy tries to set the record straight and show the readers that he is not the menacing creature the narrator portrays him to be. He has conversations with the narrator, protests against being unfairly labeled, and even hosts a party to prove that he is a friendly and fun-loving alligator.
