While ruling with justice and compassion, Solomon's fame reached the ear of the legendary Queen of Sheba, known for her immense beauty and extraordinary intellect. Curiosity sparkled in her eyes as she decided to journey to Solomon's kingdom, daring to challenge the wisdom of the mighty king.

A Test of Knowledge and Faith

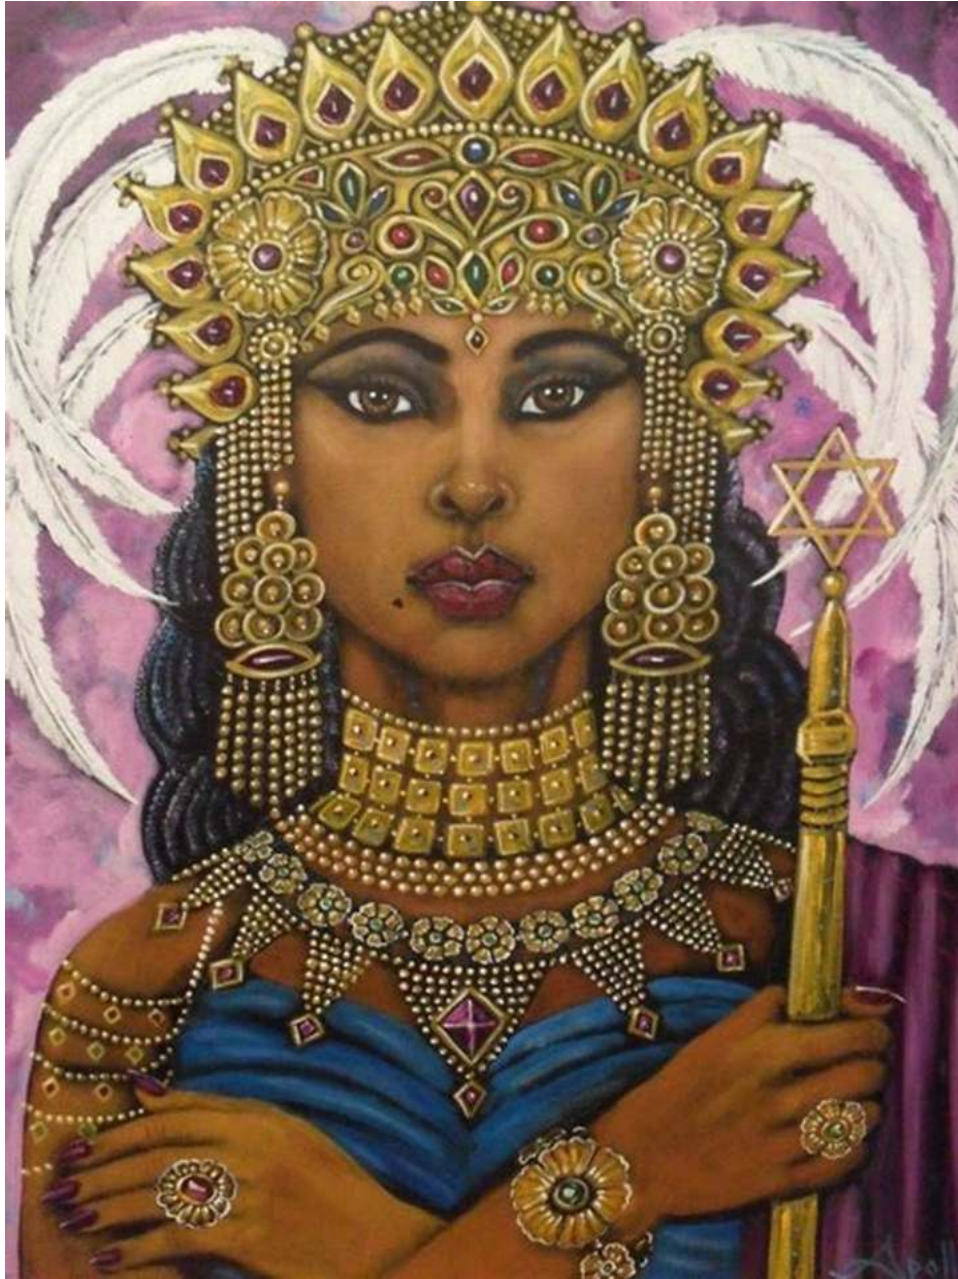

The Queen of Sheba embarked on a long and arduous journey, bringing with her a caravan filled with precious gifts, rare spices, and exotic animals. As she reached the kingdom of Solomon, she was ushered into his grand court, where the wise king awaited her arrival.

Intrigued by her beauty and intelligence, Solomon proposed a test to determine the extent of her knowledge. He presented her with a glass of water and ordered his servants to transform it into a golden goblet, adorned with exquisite emeralds, without physically altering the glass.

The Queen of Sheba pondered over the challenge and called upon her inherent wisdom, seeking divine guidance. In a moment of profound realization, she understood that true knowledge comes from acknowledging the greatness of Allah. With unwavering faith, she exclaimed, "Oh, noble king! No human possesses the power to fulfill such a wish, but only Allah Almighty, in His infinite wisdom."

Allah Blesses and Rewards Solomon

Impressed by the queen's response, Solomon recognized the strength of her faith and intellect. He graciously accepted her as his guest of honor and showered her with gifts befitting her status. The Queen of Sheba, deeply moved by Solomon's generosity and wisdom, acknowledged his supremacy and embraced the teachings of Islam.
