At first glance Taste of Life is a simple collection of recipes; but it is deeper in that it offers readers an in depth look into the life of a young entrepreneur as well as her love of food and the people that matter to her. Taste of Life is a realization that, no matter what the relationship, good or bad, for better or for worse, food is ever present at every turn of our lives. Through the recipes Nadege presents to the reader flavor, ingredients, and choices. Using short anecdotes, she presents her experience as a student, as a friend, a caterer, a woman, a person who has loved, and who has been loved, and of course as a person who loves food. The book is filled with over 50 recipes of various genres all coinciding with different people and different experiences.
