The story begins with the Bear family getting ready for Christmas. They decorate their tree with ornaments and lights, while Mama Bear bakes delicious holiday treats. Papa Bear, always full of excitement, ventures out into the snowy woods to find the perfect Christmas tree. As the night unfolds, they gather together for a cozy family evening.

Suddenly, a tapping sound on the rooftop captures their attention. Brother and Sister Bear rush to the window and are amazed to find Santa Claus, with his reindeer and sleigh, delivering presents to children around the world. The Berenstain Bears cannot believe their eyes!

As Santa Claus continues his magical work, Brother and Sister Bear become concerned about the children who may not receive any presents. They rush to their room and gather some of their own toys to give away. They leave a generous surprise for Santa to distribute to those in need. This act of kindness embodies the true spirit of Christmas.

Before the lively night comes to an end, Santa Claus leaves a special present under the Bear family's tree, a note expressing his gratitude for their thoughtfulness. The Bears are touched by Santa's acknowledgment and realize that giving is just as rewarding as receiving.

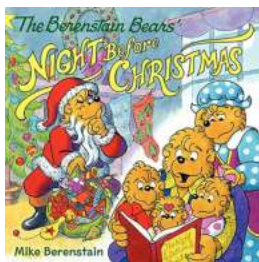

In "The Berenstain Bears Night Before Christmas," the essence of the holiday season shines through. This heartwarming story teaches children the importance of sharing, kindness, and the joy of giving.
