A tiny dragon hatches from a discarded egg in the snowy wastes of Greenland. He calls himself Flash. His first quest is to find his mother. An Arctic Fox offers his friendship, which at times is greatly tested. Flash is also challenged by the local Inuit Gods who are after his blood to give them more power. He attains the long lasting enmity of the all-powerful Polar Bear God, Nanuk.

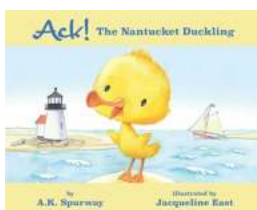

The dragon's next journey is to find his father, which involves a long flight with the fox, Carlo. He discovers his true destiny and that his real name is in fact, Favnir, Protector of the Weak. Terrifying encounters ensue with the dragon tyrants called The Cohort of Dragons.

The theme throughout this adventure shows the desperate need for dragons and humans to interrelate, realising how futile war and the desire for power really is. A story that emphasises the importance of friendship and loyalty!
