After completing high school, Clint attended a local trade school to further hone his woodworking skills. Little did he know that this decision would shape the course of his entire life. During his time in trade school, Clint had a life-changing encounter with a mentor who recognized his extraordinary talent and innate creativity.

This mentor, a seasoned furniture maker, took Clint under his wing. Under his guidance, Clint not only honed his technical skills but also developed a deep appreciation for the art of woodworking. He learned to seek inspiration from nature, allowing it to guide his designs and infuse his creations with a distinct organic touch.

With newfound confidence and a clear sense of purpose, Clint decided to venture into the world of entrepreneurship. Armed with nothing but determination and a genuine passion for his craft, he established his own woodworking business, which he aptly named "Harvesting Custom Designs."

Like any aspiring entrepreneur, Clint faced numerous challenges early on. Building a client base and establishing a presence in the highly competitive market proved to be no easy task. However, Clint's unwavering commitment to his craft, coupled with his unparalleled talent, set him apart from the crowd.

It was during this time that Clint's path crossed with that of Chip and Joanna Gaines, the beloved hosts of the hit HGTV show "Fixer Upper." The duo was instantly captivated by Clint's exceptional craftsmanship and saw great potential in his work. They decided to collaborate with Clint, inviting him to be a part of their show and bring his beautiful handcrafted pieces to life in various home renovation projects.

Each piece that bears Clint's name is meticulously handcrafted with love, care, and a deep appreciation for the natural beauty of wood.

Clint's passion for woodworking goes beyond creating exquisite pieces. He believes in using his talent and success as a platform to make a positive impact. A moving and inspirational memoir from the beloved maverick carpenter on HGTV's smash hit Fixer Upper that shows how to turn your hobbies and craft into a career and celebrates the power of meaningful work.

Now known to the countless fans of Fixer Upper as Chip and Joanna Gaines's go-to table maker and acclaimed artisan, Clint Harp hasn't always lived the DIY dream we see on the show. Ten years ago, he was dutifully working at a sales job that, while it provided security for his family, did nothing to help him achieve his unfulfilled dreams of building furniture.

With the support of his wife, the encouragement of a mentor, and a life full of lessons, he finally took the leap, quitting his job and setting out on the quest to become a carpenter. Without formal training, financing, workspace, or customers, the Harps were quickly on the edge of financial collapse. Then Clint met Chip Gaines at a gas station—a chance encounter that marked the next chapter on a wild ride Clint could never have imagined possible.

Spanning Clint’s remarkable journey—from a childhood learning carpentry and hard work at his grandfather’s knee, through his struggles to balance pursuing his dreams with supporting his family, to his partnership with Chip and Joanna Gaines and the many adventures and misadventures of filming Fixer Upper—Handcrafted is part memoir and part manual for dreamers of all backgrounds. “From the floor of his first shop to the foundations of Habitat for Humanity houses, to building furniture for the world to see, Clint Harp is living a handcrafted life” (President Jimmy Carter).
