WHO WAS THE MYSTERIOUS MAN CALLED NEVILLE?

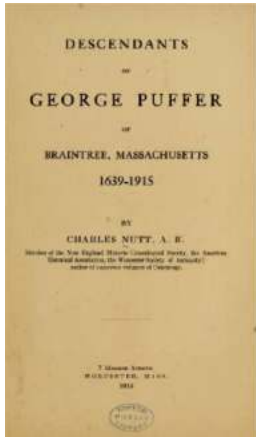

In this concise work, PEN Award-winning author and historian Mitch Horowitz explores one of the most radical, finely developed, and intriguing intellects in modern metaphysics: Neville Goddard (1905-1972).

Neville issued the ultimate challenge: your imagination is God. He had an ethic of empowering self-responsibility and boundless mental creativity.

Neville's ideas are compelling and beautifully congruent with quantum physics and scholarly psychological research. As Mitch describes, Neville is modern mysticism's most penetrating voice.

In Magician of the Beautiful, Mitch explores the mystic's background, shows how to put his ideas into action, and considers Neville's mysterious teacher Abdullah.

“Mitch Horowitz is a no-nonsense historian specializing in matters of metaphysics, New Thought, and the occult. His works don't stop at mere description of these movements but often delve into method and experience, inviting readers to test the transformational potential of these waters for themselves. A trusted voice on esoteric topics...” —Unity Magazine
