New School Kids with Old School Values!The Remix Kids are a diverse group of children who are planted in the lives of their peers, to help when a friend may need advice or a helping hand. They live across the country and are all connected via their special tablets – and have the unique and creative ability to show (and flow) a different point of view.The Remix Kids: Good Gift focuses on the goodness principle. Young Luke is faced with a dilemma when his mom asks him about donating some of his toys. This small request leads into a larger conversation with a friend, and a greater understanding of thinking of others.
