Valentine's Day for Ladybug, written by A.J. Chilson and illustrated by Lilly Housh, is a Christian children's book about a young girl who misses her father. Not because the father has died or has been divorced, but because he made a bad decision. Many children in America and around the world are faced with the same circumstance as June, a.k.a. "Ladybug". Even Valentine's Day doesn't offer much in terms of a reprieve for June. Until she comes home after school to the surprise (and Valentine) she has been praying for.
