The tale of Alyssa Schermel begins in a bygone era, when Fairyland flourished under the watchful eyes of wise and benevolent rulers. Queen Celestia and King Orion ruled with compassion, ensuring harmony and prosperity for all. Their love for each other was unparalleled, and the realms rejoiced in their celestial companionship.

On a moonlit night, as a shimmering comet streaked across the starlit skies, Queen Celestia sensed a divine presence within her being. Time froze as she realized she was carrying a child, a child who would embody the essence of their everlasting love.

Months passed, and anticipation filled the air. The kingdom seemed to hold its breath in anticipation of the princess's arrival. Grand celebrations were prepared, and the haunting melodies of unicorns' songs echoed through the enchanted forests.
