Fable: The journey is the fifth in its series created by Lionhead studios made specifically for the Xbox 360. Fable the journey is separate from the rest of its predecessors as it is the only one that you can play with Kinect. That makes it unique and exciting. Here it is your actions that keep you alive. The story begins 50 years after the end of Fable III, a tribe of dwellers are engulfed in a terrible storm and a young man, Gabriel, gets separated from his people. Now you must go on a journey to free the land from an evil known as 'The Corruption.'

Fable the Journey: A Fan Game Guide is a booklet with straight to the point information on how to play this version of Fable. We give you tricks and tips on how to cast spells. Provide you with links where you can see reviews from other players as well as watch them cast spells such as: the bolt, the push, fireball amongst others. If you want to get started and advance quickly in Fable the journey this is your must-have guide. Please follow the instructions properly to get the best results. No other game comes close to being this fun. It could have been done with a control pad but that would have robbed us of such a rich gaming experience.
