Our expedition will then lead us to the mystifying Zhangjiajie National Forest Park, where towering sandstone pillars blanket the horizon, inspiring scenes made famous by the film "Avatar". Prepare to be spellbound as Christine unravels the legends behind these mesmerizing peaks.

No journey through China would be complete without a visit to the magical Yunnan Province, known for its breathtaking landscapes, diverse ethnic cultures, and distinctive cuisine. Christine will guide us through vibrant markets, picturesque traditional villages, and the pristine shores of the awe-inspiring Erhai Lake.

Reviving Ancient Traditions

China is not just a land of captivating landscapes; it is also the birthplace of many ancient traditions that continue to shape the country's identity. Christine Juarez has made it her mission to ensure these traditions are preserved and cherished for future generations.

Our journey will take us to the Silk Road, a historic trade route that connected China to the Western world. Here, we will witness the intricate art of silk weaving, mastered by local artisans who have inherited this ancient craft.

Christine will also introduce us to the captivating world of Chinese calligraphy, a timeless art form that has been celebrated for centuries. We will witness the strokes and rhythms that bring Chinese characters to life, gaining insight into the profound cultural significance of this exquisite practice.

Immersing in the Culinary Delights

No exploration of China is complete without indulging in the country's sumptuous cuisine. Christine Juarez will take us on a gastronomic adventure, introducing us to the diverse flavors and regional specialties that make China's culinary scene truly extraordinary.

We will savor the delicate flavors of Cantonese cuisine in Guangzhou, delight in the fiery delights of Sichuan's famous hotpot, and discover the unique culinary traditions of the historic capital, Beijing.
