Superior Tales & Trails is a collection of short stories and one of a kind photographs which offer a mere glimpse at the colourful characters, extraordinary events and incredible tales that are an integral part of the culture in a unique corner of Northern Ontario. The eastern shoreline of Lake Superior between Montreal River Harbour and Wawa, Ontario is a dramatic landscape full of equally dramatic stories. The overgrown trails, abandoned portage routes, and rotting cabins are silent remnants of centuries of human activity and drama in an unforgiving land.

Inspired by the popularity of regular local history columns in a variety of digital and print media, Superior Tales & Trails is a small taste of what makes this part of Canada such a fascinating place to live, visit and explore.
