Simple Mysteries, Profound Knowledge was written from an inspiration and a need to share my perspective on life at the time to members of the pagan and human communities. This book is designed to give those both new to spirituality a foundation to start from, as well as giving the human community a peek into this world in hopes of understanding and acceptance. My hope is that people will not sit and debate over what is right or wrong with the book, for it is all from my perspective, my training, and my experiences.
