Into the Wilderness: Exploring the Great Northern Highway

The Great Northern Highway is a vast stretch of road that snakes its way through the heart of Australia, spanning over 3,200 kilometers. It cuts through the mesmerizing landscapes of Western Australia, showcasing the country's diverse and breathtaking natural wonders.

The protagonist of this series is a vagabond, an adventurer who traverses this iconic highway in search of freedom, belonging, and self-discovery. With a backpack full of dreams and a heart full of wanderlust, the vagabond encounters a myriad of characters, each sharing their unique stories along the way.

A Cast of Memorable Characters

Throughout the series, readers are introduced to a fascinating cast of characters who join the vagabond on their odyssey. From fellow travelers to local inhabitants, each character adds depth and intrigue to the narrative.

1. Scarlet, the Mysterious Hitchhiker

Scarlet is a captivating hitchhiker the vagabond encounters during their journey. With her enigmatic personality and cryptic past, Scarlet becomes an integral part of the vagabond's adventure, leaving an indelible mark on their quest for self-discovery.

2. The Wise Old Nomad

As the vagabond ventures deeper into the wilderness, they stumble upon a wise old nomad who possesses a wealth of knowledge about life and its intricacies. This enigmatic character becomes a mentor figure for the protagonist, guiding them through the challenges they encounter.

3. The Roadside Poet

Within the pages of this series, readers are introduced to the roadside poet, a poet-at-heart who travels along the Great Northern Highway, sharing their profound verses at every opportunity. Through their thought-provoking poems, the vagabond and readers alike are encouraged to reflect on the meaning of life, love, and everything in between.

Mystery and Intrigue Along the Great Northern Highway

As the vagabond delves deeper into their journey, they encounter several hidden secrets and unexplained phenomena along the Great Northern Highway. From abandoned ghost towns to eerie campfire tales, the series intertwines elements of mystery and suspense to keep readers on the edge of their seats.

A Reflection of the Human Spirit

Vagabond On The Great Northern Highway Tramp Lit Series is more than just an adventure. It is a reflection of the human spirit, capturing the essence of wanderlust, the search for belonging, and the yearning for self-discovery. It delves into the depths of our souls, urging us to question our surroundings, our purpose, and ultimately, ourselves.

What is it about the desolate far North American wilderness that calls the intrepid traveler to uncover its sanctifying and deadly secrets? From Jack London (Call of the Wild) to Christopher McCandless (chronicled in Jon Krakauer's Into the Wild) souls have found solace in the silent, frozen northern kingdom at the top of the world, the Ultima Thule.

The forested flatlands give way to the frozen Rocky Mountains over millions of acres nominally in the dominion of both the United States and Canada and accessible by its 1532 mile shared umbilical cord—The Alcan Highway.

Legendary vagabond, Jim Christy, a Canadian now but born an American travels this road throughout his life. First as a young man in the early 1960s hungry for rugged adventure then revisiting the journey every few years both observing and reflecting on the growth of Northwest in the Rough Road to the North.

Christy vividly describes the history of the indigenous people and the hearty (and often foolhardy) pioneers who built the Alcan highway and opened the northern road. Christy's lyrical text weaves fulsome magic about the siren call of the last unconquered land of North America.
